Main Course

A team of three people take on Big Mouth together competing in challenges and adventures as one. Your place is determined when all three have crossed the finish line. The course, confidential until race day, consists of approximately 19 miles in which canoeing, biking both on and off road, running, trail trekking, orienteering, and other obstacles might be used. In April, weather will also be a factor. Each player will be required to bring a bike, helmet, and appropriate attire. Each team must have one cell phone. Canoe and personal flotation device will be supplied. The Big Mouth Award is given to the first team to hit all checkpoints and cross the finish line.
